DEPARTMENT ON DISABILITY
EQUITY THROUGH ACCESS

The City of Los Angeles Department on Disability hosts the Fourth Annual ReelAbilities Film Festival Los Angeles 2021.

DISABILITY IS DIVERSITY!

Community partners we would like to invite you to our Fourth Annual ReelAbilities Film Festival Los Angeles 2021. Promote and support disabled filmmakers, actors, and stories by attending ReelAbilities. View screenings and participate in panels that spotlight the lives, narratives, and artistic expressions of people with different abilities.

Far too often, disabled creators and narratives are dismissed, ignored, or misrepresented to cater to inspirational tropes or one-dimensional stereotypes. Over the course of three days, witness how disabled creators are empowering a movement in the film and entertainment industry by producing the fantastic works the festival is screening. Question panelists on how they are shaking up Hollywood by embodying the call that Disability is Diversity!

EQUITY THROUGH ACCESS

We will again be hosting the screenings and panels virtually. All films are presented with full audio descriptions and closed captioning. Sign Language and Communication Access Real-Time Translation (CART) will also be provided throughout the screenings and panels.

ReelAbilities is committed to ensuring access to all communities; to that end, if the ticket price is a barrier, every ticket has a PAY-WHAT-YOU-CAN feature from complimentary tickets to the additional donation at higher amounts listed below.

All films, panels, and events this year are based on donation admittance. Simply select the movie or pass you would like, donate the suggested amount: $8.00 for a single movie, $20.00 for a Saturday or Sunday Day Pass, or $40.00 for the Total Festival Pass.

After you purchase tickets, you will receive an email from Eventive with instructions and links for viewing your selection.
