

Carrie Madden Bio

Carrie Madden is a person with a disability (Muscular Dystrophy) and uses a power wheelchair. She was born and raised in Glendale, California and has six brothers and sisters, two of whom also have Muscular Dystrophy.

She is a graduate from California State University Northridge with a BA in Ethnic Studies/Pan African Studies. She wanted to learn about the Civil Rights movement and how it relates to the disability rights movement.

Currently, she is a Systems Change Advocate and works on transportation, healthcare, IHSS, voting rights and housing. Carrie is a member of Aging and Disability Transportation Network, the Los Angeles County Public Authority, the Metro Accessibility Advisory Committee, the Metro Policy Advisory Committee, and the Chair of the Time for 20 Campaign for Hand In Hand (The Domestic Employers Union).